

A. Limitations on the Board of Directors- In cases where a membership is composed of more than one individual (Double, empty nest or family membership), term limitations and other qualifications will apply to the membership and not to the individual.